

I have applauded the work the State of Wisconsin has done to keep the telemarketer off my telephone (usually at the evening dinner hour) and now someone, in the sake of conformity wants to "water down" the Wisconsin law. Please take into account that people just don't want to be bothered by "pitches" for goods that they do not initiate themselves. Don't let one "business group" dictate the telemarketer's rules for all.